To Momus' Use devoted was this Pile,
Where canting Bigots pray.
What then? for Momus Genius ſways here ſtill,
Players or Bigots play.

SIR,

THIS libellous Epigram was paſted on the Walls of New Sadlers Wells, where I found a Crowd of honeſt Citizens, ſome ſpelling, ſome reading, many expounding, but none underſtanding it. It ſeems the Difficulty lay in their Inacquaintance with whom Momus, whom they variouſly conjectured to be either a Player or Fleet Parſon, or the Grand Turk; and, if neither of theſe, he muſt be the Dl. But one of the Tavernhouſe-Boys coming by, told them very gravely, that though Momus was no Player, he was a Conjurer; and that if they had ſeen the new Pantomime Harlequin Sorcerer, they had ſeen Momus himſelf, in the Shape of that redoubted Piece of Folly.

This ſatisfied them, but not me; for I had my Difficulties too, tho' of a different Nature. Theſe were ſoon cleared up; for I was informed, the Houſe was let, and converted into a Place of Worſhip by the Methodiſts, a Piece of Intelligence altogether new to me.

When I had thus fully underſtood the Matter, the Bias I am directed by in the Behalf of my Men, induced me to tear down the Libel, or, if you pleaſe, the Libel; but not without ſome Oppoſition and Inſults from the Mob, who immediately dubbed me with the most opprobrious Titles they could think of, calling me, very conſiſtently, a Preſbyterian, a Methodiſt, and a Papiſt. However, I got off without being pelted,---a Forbearance which nobly diſtinguiſhed this Mob from thoſe of a meaner Claſs; and which, to the Honor of the City-Mob, is purpoſely as well as gratefully remarked.

The ſame Motive, Sir, which made me tear the Libel down makes me ſend it to you;---to have it effectually exploded: And, tho' it is impoſſible to detect the Author, yet may you eaſily perſuade it to have been wrote by ſome Enemy to religious Schiſms; and thoſe who are Enemies to theſe Schiſms, which are of more Uſe to Religion than can be generally imagined, are conſequently no great Friends to Religion itſelf. If this Doctrine is not general, it is not perhaps becauſe it is falſe, which at another time I may illuſtrate more at large; tho' at preſent I propoſe to ſay ſomething to the Purpoſe.

It is grown a Faſhion among Writers to harangue their Readers on the Profaneneſs of the Age, on the neglected State of Religion, and the amazing melancholy Progreſs of Infidelity. I ſay it is a Faſhion; and to prove it ſo, will only produce the libellous Object of my preſent Cenſure, the Lines above cenſured: For from them does it not appear, that Religion ſucceeds in the Place of Sports and Paſtime? That the Word of God prevails, where the Power of the Devil did prevail? And where is this owing, but to what has been generally decried, but to Schiſm in Religion?——Hence may at once be obſerved the Importance of the Schiſmatic, and the Futility of your faſhionable Writings.

I am ſenſible it may be objected, that there is no Religion in theſe Schiſmatics. But ſuch an Objection can only be offered by ſuch Men as our Epigrammatiſt and Libeller, by Men who ſacrifice their Charity to their Wit, or both to their Spleen and Deiſm. From theſe Men let us defend the uſeful Conventicle, the pious Paſtor, and his unwary Flock; leſt by miſleading or, what they call, diſabuſing theſe, they bring the Paſtor into Contempt, and return his Conventicle again into a Playhouſe.

The Uſe, Importance, if not Neceſſity, of the Schiſmatic may be proved from many other Reaſons, beſides that of keeping a Religion awake which would naturally ſleep with its dignified Sleepers. Is he not highly uſeful to Trade, by carving out a comfortable and affluent Subſiſtence to the honeſt Tradeſman who can happily command the Tone of his Voice and the Muſcles of his Face?——This might be called the propagating Hypocriſy, by Men whoſe Talents are turned to Satire; but I leave you to judge, with what Propriety.

Many are thoſe who are fed by the Means of the Schiſmatic, who would otherwiſe be ſtarved, hanged or tranſported. 'Tis ſafe gambling in Piety: To whine well, and look demure, if they think evil, are no Crimes againſt Law; and while Back and Belly are ſupported by theſe Means, Property will be ſecure from Violence at leaſt, and conſequently the Law cannot be offended. Thus the Schiſmatic provides for the Degeneracy as well as the Wants of Mankind: Tho', ſuch is the Perverſeneſs of human Nature, there are not thoſe wanting, who detract from the Merit of this Charity, by calling it the Plunder of the Deluded, and the Objects of it only Sharers with the Procurers, and that too in a very unequal Degree. You may gueſs what a Head and a Heart he muſt have, who can encourage this Suſpicion.

'Tis well known the Schiſmatic is active, vigilant, bold and inſinuating. Where is the Man ſo well fitted for Succeſs? May we not hope then, our Streets and Highways may be franked from Plunderers, if Schiſmatics, Men ſo happily qualified to reform, increaſe? But even this evident Advantage to the Community, would be denominated by ſome as only diverting the Courſe of Villainy, as clearing the Streets of Rogues to make a Croud in, and give Credit to, a Conventicle!——Simia non capitur laqueo. But there is no ſatisfying every body.

I have, Sir, to your Satisfaction I hope, evinced the Uſe and Importance of a Schiſmatic; the Emolument the Community may derive from him, and in what a particular Manner he advantages Religion. I have forborn to view him in a political Light, I mean as he may affect the Policy of an Adminiſtration, for two Reaſons:

I. Becauſe it is the Buſineſs of a Politician.

II. Becauſe I had no Adminiſtration in my Eye that had any Policy to affect.

Having then ſhewn, that ſuch Men as are called Schiſmatics, or Broachers of Schiſms, ſhould be ſupported and encouraged, I ſhall next conſider the beſt Accommodation that can be provided for them: I don't mean, in regard to Salary and Perquiſite, for theſe are beſt left to their own provident Management, but in Point of Reſidence, for the more convenient Diſſemination of oppoſing Tenets.

There is a Society for the Propagation of the Goſpel in foreign Parts, long ſince erected in this Metropolis, and which has proved its Utility by the Extenſion it has given to the Bounds of Chriſtianity. Now, Sir, I would propoſe another Society, with the ſame Powers on a different Plan, might be formed to ſuperintend religious Concerns at home, by which I don't mean to infringe on the Province of their Right Reverends the Epiſcopacy. I ſhall not preſume to add to, or take from, the Duty and Juriſdiction of that venerable, apoſtolic Aſſembly.

But as this Society muſt have a Name, ſignificant of its Inſtitution, ſuppoſe it is called the Society for the Propagation of HERESY in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and Parts adjacent. By the Word Hereſy I mean no more than Diviſion or Schiſm, which is the pure Senſe of the Word, however it may have been corrupted.

It is eaſy to foreſee the vaſt Advantages this Society will procure us. If they purſue the Duty of their Functions with but moderate Aſſiduity, and at firſt they will undoubtedly purſue it with Diligence, we may boaſt in one Year's Time of more Conventicles than Taverns, and a greater Number of ſchiſmatical Teachers than of Dancing-maſters or Fidlers put together.

And would not this be the Religious Age? What a Pleaſure muſt it be to ſee the Sorcerer turned Divine, his Houſe become a Tabernacle, and his Company metamorphoſed into Strolling Preachers and Pew-openers? How muſt it delight a good Man to obſerve, the Lights of the Goſpel, in a Variety of Colours, penetrating the remote and dark Regions of Wapping, Whitechapel, Shoreditch, Old-ſtreet, even thro' the famed St. Giles's as far as Tothill-fields, on the North-Side of the Thames? Then again, what Addition to his Delight would it give, to ſee the ſame Lights dart acroſs that River thro' the almoſt impervious Blinds of Heatheniſm and Irreligion, kindling up the various Fires of Religion among the Pagans of the South?

The Society ſhould be careful in chuſing their Miſſionaries for the Hundreds of Drury, St. Giles's, &c. on this Side of the Water, or for the heatheniſh Shore and the Mint on the other. I am of Opinion, they ought to be better Surgeons than Divines, or 'tis very certain, their Proſelytes will not live to credit them or their Doctrines. Here's Employment for the Navy-Surgeons in this dead Time of Peace; for they have only a little wrangling Divinity, and the Ten Commandments, to get by Rote, to qualify themſelves for theſe troubleſome Miſions: And this the Society of Navy Surgeons will do well to remark.

There will be ſeveral convenient Stations in the Juriſdiction of our new-intended Society, which might be procured at a very eaſy Rate, and which therefore, to prevent Overſight, I ſhall mention. The Royal Exchange, where the Milliners uſed to be, lies unoccupied; Lincoln's-Inn-fields Playhouſe, and ſeveral large Houſes thereabout, are empty. Indeed, the near Vicinity of the Orator may be ſome Terror at firſt to a new Schiſmatic; but that may be rectified by the Prudence of the Society, who will undoubtedly ſend proper Agents this way, Men who never felt the Inconvenience of a Bluſh in their Lives. Then there is the two idle Theatres in the Haymarket, and about the New Bridge there are ſeveral new-built Houſes which are not like to be tenanted very ſoon. I forgot to take in Broughton's Amphitheatre, tho' it may make a very notable Conventicle, as well as the Booth in George-yard, Smithfield, which is only uſed a few Days in the Year at Bartholomew-Tide. As to the heathen Shore, I know of no Place there, 'till the new-projected Jail is built, and then the pious Uſe which may be made of the old one is too evident to be pointed out.

These Conventitles will render Churches uſeleſs, and at leaſt prevent the building more. The Monies therefore appropriated in Q. Ann's Time for that Purpoſe, may now help to leſſen the National Debt, or to make half a ſcore Elections on the Diſſolution of the preſent ****.

It muſt be a ſtanding Maxim of the Society to encourage the neweſt Schiſm. As Methodiſm is the lateſt that I know of, it will conſequently bear the Belle.

I have gone thro' my preſent Purpoſe, have I hope ſhewn Schiſm in Religion in the Light it will beſt bear, and ſufficiently diſciplined the Enemies of Religion in general, which will ever be the Endeavours of,

SIR,

Your humble Servant,

SNEERWILE.

LONDON.

Laſt Sunday, for the firſt time, the late New Wells near the London Spaw, was preached in by a clergyman, it being taken by the rev. Mr. John Weſley for a tabernacle.

A proclamation is iſſued for the election of one of the ſixteen peers of Scotland, in the room of the late earl of Dunmore. The election is to come on the 9th of July next. And tis ſaid in Scotland, the right hon. the earl of Bedalbane will be choſen.

Laſt week two gentlemen of diſtinction were put under an arreſt, on account of a challenge one gave the other to fight a duel; the cauſe of their quarrel was a woman. One had been detected in an intrigue with the other's miſtreſs; a crime which men of gallantry it ſeems think it worth their while to revenge by death.

Laſt Thurſday was elected fellows of the Society of Antiquaries, the right rev. the lord biſhop of Clogher; the rev. Robert Maſters, B. D. fellow of Corpus Chriſti College, Cambridge, William Wood, M. A. rector of Nighton, in the iſle of Wight, late fellow of Queen's College, Oxford, & William Thompſon, M. A. at preſent fellow of the ſame: after which the ſociety adjourned to the 28th inſtant, as did the Royal Society to the ſame day.

We hear from Warwick, that laſt week died there Miſs Powell, only daughter of Walter Powell, of Hinton in Huntingdonſhire, Eſq;

Laſt Thurſday ſe'nnight died at Bath, Sir Miles Stapylton, Bart. of Moyſton, in Yorkſhire, and one of the commiſſioners of his Majeſty's cuſtoms.

We hear that a law ſuit is commenced by ſome near Relations of Miſs Jeffryes, againſt an eminent dealer in Chelſea penſions, about the eſtate of the late Mr. Joſeph Jeffryes, who was murdered by his niece; ſhe adminiſtered to her uncle's will, which was in her favour, and in conſequence of that left this gentleman her heir. It will be a ſuit in Chancery, and the point will be, whether Miſs Jeffryes, in the circumſtances of being ſuſpected of murder, had any right to adminiſter at all; for if ſhe had, then the eſtate will fall to the perſon ſhe nominated, and if not, to her neareſt relations.

On Sunday night a Gentleman who had formerly been a colonel of the Army, but for ſome time paſt much diſordered in his Senſes, appearing in the park with his ſword drawn, upon a perſon's talking to him in a manner which he thought affronting, puſhed it through his hand, and was making a thruſt at his breaſt, when he was happily prevented by a by-ſtander, who knocked the ſword out of his hand: he was ſecured and carried to the guard room till his friends make ſome proviſion for him, ſo as to prevent his coming abroad.

Yeſterday's ſe'nnight a lady walked, for a very conſideradle wager, from Burlington gardens to the Thatched houſe in St. James's ſtreet, which her ladyſhip won, being allowed ten mintues, and performing it in eight.

The match for ſome time ſubſiſting between two gentlemen, the one from Hertfordſhire, and the other from Northamptonſhire, was run early on Wedneſday morning in Hyde-park, and won by the former, who afterwards challenged any gentleman in England the ſame length of ground, being a mile, for 100 l.

Some months ago we mentioned in our paper, a method that was diſcovered by two gentlemen for making ſalt water freſh. This invention was laid before the lords of the admiralty, who were willing to give encouragement to ſuch an undertaking, provided the projectors would exhibit a ſpecimen of their performance. Their lordſhips alſo enquired what fuel would be neceſſary, becauſe if a conſiderable quantity was required, it was equally convenient to load ſhips with water as with firing. To this objection it was anſwered, that a ſhillings worth of fuel was enough to produce 36 gallons of freſh water from ſalt water. The undertakers then went to work, got their engine ready, and the lords of the admiralty ordered a ſufficent quantity of ſalt water from the Nore for the uſe of the inventors, who proceeded to the experiment; and, according to their propoſal, they produced the freſh water. During the time of the operation the water ſeemed to promiſe ſucceſs, but before the affair was to be decided it was ordered to be cloſe casked up for a few days. At the time appointed the barrels were broached, but the water had then ſo nauſeous, ſo uncommon, and ſo ſtrong a ſmell, that it diffuſed itſelf over the neighbourhood, where every body wondered what could be the cauſe of it. This affair terminated greatly to the diſappoinment of the projectors, who had agreed to ask for no reward till they had executed their deſign.

Wedneſday night between eight and nine, as Mr. Leveridge was walking along Prince's ſtreet, Lincoln's Inn fields, he fell down in a fit by the end of Vere ſtreet, and was carried into the grocer's ſhop at the Corner.

On Tueſday evening, as Mr. Welch, an apothecary near London ſtone, was walking to meet ſome friends at the Horns by Hornſey, he was ſeized with an apoplectic fit in a field, between Newington and that place: he had lain ſome time before was diſcovered by a boy accidentally paſſing by; and after having been bloodet, without effect, was carried to the coffee houſe adjoining to Newington church yard, and a meſſenger diſpatched to his family with the melancholy news.

A Girl who had for ſome time paſt been obliged to the Generoſity of a married Perſon of Eminence, who went under a feign'd Name to her, and had alſo contracted Matrimony with her, was about a Month ſince taken very ill: an Apothecary attended her, by whoſe Care ſhe ſoon began to recover, and remained pretty well for a few Dayes: but in a ſhort time ſhe relapſed into a very dangerous condition: medicines were adminiſtred to her by the apothecary, which had no Effect: he was greatly ſurprized at this, and told her that ſhe had certainly taken ſomething to counteract the virtues of what had been given her, which ſhe ſolemnly denied, and laſt week died in the greateſt agony. In one of her pockets was found a letter from her pretended friend, preſſing her, if ſhe regarded the re-eſtabliſhment of her health, to continue thoſe powders he had ſent her, every other day and not to acquaint the Apothecary with it, leaſt he ſhould oppoſe the only means by which (if ſhe had any confidence in him) ſhe ſhould recover. On Sunday Night her corpſe was decently interred.

On Tueſday Night a Man and Woman having Words in Gravel Lane, Wapping, the latter receiv'd ſo violent a Stab in her Breaſt, that her Life was deſpair'd of. The Man was immediately ſecur'd, and ſince committed to New-Priſon.

On Sunday evening, near the four mile ſtone, coming from Harrow on the Hill, a coach was robbed by two highwaymen, with white Masks on, well mounted on bay horſes, of a Watch two mourning rings, a pair of pendents, & between four and five pouuds, including a Spaniſh piece of ſilver; ten minutes after, they robbed two gentlemen in a ſingle horſe chaiſe of a gold and ſilver watch, their ſhoe and knee buckles, and four pounds in money. The highwayman had light and brown horſemen's coats, and are ſuppoſed to be very young.

On Saturday night about 11 o'clock a gentleman was attacked on Tower hill by a man and a woman, who robbed him of his hat & wig, and 10s. in money. The gentleman luckily ſaved his watch by ſlipping it into his ſide pocket. After they had robbed him they bid him good night.

Sunday in the evening one ſmith and another perſon, two ſmugglers, were apprehended in Kent-ſtreet road by ſome theif catchers, who were looking out after other prey, with three oil skin bags full of tea; they were carried before William Hammond, Eſq; who committed Smith to the New Goal, Southwark, for farther examination, and the other to Bridewell, he propoſing to make ſome uſeful diſcoveries in that iniquitous practice.

Laſt Saturday Thomas Jones, by trade a journeyman taylor, but by profeſſion a cheat, not leſs celebrated than even Stroud himſelf, was convicted upon two indictments, the firſt for defrauding Meſſ. Laugh and Pitts, men's mercers, of two large quanties of Allapene, by producing a falſe token, and pretending to come from Mr. Eccles, a maſter taylor in Norfolk-ſtreet; and the other for defrauding Mr. deputy Naſh, woollen draper in St. Paul's church-yard, of a large Quantity of cloth, by perſonating his ſervant, and pretending to be Mr. Evan Price a maſter taylor near Red Lion ſquare. His ſentence was ſix months impriſonment in Newgate, to ſtand in the pillory at the weſt end of Cheapſide, and from thence to be whipped round the ſouth ſide of St. Paul's to the end of Ludgate-ſtreet.

Tueſday a man was committed to Newgate by Sir George Champion for ſtealing a cask of ſnuff. He was deputy to Thomas Tullis, Eſq; who a few days ſince ſucceeded the late Eſquire Thrift, as public executioner.

Laſt Saturday the ſeſſions ended at the Old Baily, when the two following perſons received ſentence of Death, viz.

James Brown, alias Thompſon, and Morris Salbury, for returning from tranſprtation.

One to be tranſported for 7 years.

One to be whipped. And

One burnt in the hand.

On Saturday the two Perſons that were ſuſpected of giving a quantity of Jallap to one of their fellow priſoners in Lugate, which occaſioned his death, were tried at the Old Baily, and after a trial of ſeveral hours they were both acquitted.

The highwayman who robbed Mr. Brown and Mr. Lethuiller on Shooter's Hill, died on Saturday afternoon, in the priſon of Dartford, having the day before taken a quantity of poiſon for that purpoſe.

The ſtory of the ſtaymaker's maid, who ſwore a rape againſt her fellow ſervant for carrying her to Lambeth and their raviſhing her, is ſomewhat irregular. As ſoon as ſhe could get herſelf diſengaged from the ſpoiler of her innocence, ſhe conſulted with the beſt of her friends upon the diſaſtrous event, who all gave it as their opinion that he ſhould be proſecuted. When they came before juſtice Fielding, the fellow who knew the danger of being impriſoned for ſo flagrant a crime as a rape, and being afraid of his life, gently whiſpered her to permit him to ſay they were married, or otherwiſe he told her he ſhould be hanged for what ſhe was going to ſware againſt him: This circumſtance ſo ſhocked the girl, that upon his putting the queſtion to her ſhe anſwered yes, upon which they were both diſmiſſed.

On Monday laſt a gentleman went into a ſhop in Charing Croſs, in order to buy ſome things he wanted, and when he was about to pay, he threw down a thirty-ſix ſhilling piece on the compter, and ſaw a gentleman walking by who he beckoned to come to him, and while he was in converſation with him, the gentlewoman who ſerved him thought proper to put it in her pocket, and then denied that ſhe had received it; he inſiſted upon his having thrown it down upon the compter, and kept the priſoner behind it till he had a conſtable ſent for, at whoſe appearance ſhe confeſſed and reſtored the money. As ſhe begged hard not to be expoſed, the gentleman was compaſſionate enough to forgive her.

We hear there is now in the Bridewell of Chelmsford in Eſſex, a woman who was committed there as a vagrant for begging about that country, pretends to be dumb, on whom, after committment, upwards of 100 l. was found concealed round her waiſt. She is a native of Scotland, and is ordered to be paſſed thither.

On Friday the 8th inſtant, Benjamin Woodſworth, the bell man or common cryer of Selby, in the weſt riding of Yorkſhire, made proclamation, by ring of his bell, in the public ſtreets of the ſaid town of Selby, for the inhababitants thereof to bring their axes and hatchets at twelve o'clock that night in order to cut down the turnpike erected at that place by act of parliament; and on the 7th, 8th, 9th, and 11th inſtant, divers perſons aſſembled in an outrageous manner, cut down and totally deſtroyed the great gate of the ſaid turnpike, and five ſeveral rails belonging to the ſame; and information having been received that the ſaid riotous proceedings are ſtill carried on by perſons unknown; their excellencies the lords juſtices, to diſcover and bring to puniſhment the perſons concerned in the ſaid crimes, have been pleaſed to promiſe his majeſty's moſt gracious pardon to any perſons concerned therein, except the ſaid Benjamin Woodſworth, who ſhall diſcover and apprehend his accomplice or accomplices, ſo as he or they may be apprehended or convicted thereof. And as a further encouragement, their excellencies the lord juſtices have promiſed a reward of Fifty Pounds, to be paid by the lords commiſſioners of his majeſty's treaſury, upon the conviction of ſuch offender or offenders. And the acting commiſſioners for managing the affairs of the ſaid turnpike have alſo promiſed a reward of Twenty Pounds, upon the ſaid conviction.

We hear from Worceſter, that on Monday the 10th inſtant General Cholmondeley reviewed there Sir John Ligonier's Dragoons: The troops pleaſed the general; they were all mounted on bay geldings and made a pretty appearance.

They write from Worceſter that a perſon, who ſome years ſince was ſuppoſed to be dead, had lately haunted a ſmall village with his apparition. The perſon having involved himſelf in more debts than he could diſcharge, abſconded to avoid his creditors, and ſome time after contrived to deceive them, by having a funeral ceremony read over a coffin, which was given out to contain his corpſe; but appearing about a fortnight ago too openly, ſomebody who knew him, informed ſome of his creditors of it, and they had taken and thrown into a goal at Worceſter, where he now continues.

According to ſome late advices from Lisbon, the Britiſh miniſter, lord Tyrawley, could never have been there in a more favourable juncture than the preſent; ſince the Portugueſe court are exceedingly diſguſted at the French ſettlement in the neighbourhood of Mazambique, and from thence inclined to contract a cloſer friendſhip than ever with the Britiſh nation.

According to private letters from Paris, five perſons have been executed at Rouen, and 27 more ſentenced to the gallies, for the Inſurrection. Yet the price of bread has been reduced, not only there, but in other places, where the like miſchiefs were apprehended from the ſame cauſe.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, dated May 22.

"The parliament ſeems reſolved to abide by their reſolution of proſecuting vigorouſly thoſe ſchiſmatical eccleſiaſtics who refuſed the ſacrament to ſuch as they pleaſe to term Janſeniſts; and that this affair will be determined, happen what may; and all the other Parliaments concur with them herein.

"A curate of Vennes in Britany refuſing to baptize an infant, under pretence that the godfather was a janſeniſt, the baptiſm was thereby ſo long delayed that the child died without it: Whereupon the relations brought their complaint againſt the curate before that parliament, who have ordered him to be apprehended, and ſentenced him to be branded in the forehead with the letters P. L. by the hands of the common hangman."

Mr. Keith's Chapel, in May-Fair, Hyde-Park Corner, where the Marriages are performed by Virtue of a Crown Stamp and Certificate for a Guinea, is quite the great Chapel and within Ten Yards of the Way to the Chapel is thro' Piccadilly, by the End of St. James's-ſtreet, and down Clargesſtreet, and turn on the Left Hand.—Several Perſons belonging to Churches and Chapels together with many others, ſuppoſing the Marriages to be inſtrumental to their Intereſt, have made it their Buſineſs to rave and clamour, but in ſuch a Manner, as not to deſerve an Anſwer, becauſe every Thing they have ſaid tends only to expoſe their own Ignorance and Malice, in the Opinion of People of good Senſe and Underſtanding.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Birmingham May 8. On Tueſday laſt the Wife of Mr. Fitter, who was formerly a chandler at Knowl in this county, went out with her three children, the eldeſt of whom was not ſeven years old, in order to gather up ſome ſticks that laſt under a hay rick which belonged to Mr. Alton of that place, when the rick fell on them, and every one of them were ſmothered. They were not diſcovered till the next morning, when the middleſt child was found in the lap of the eldeſt, and the youngeſt at the mother's breaſt.

By the KING's PATENT,

For this Kingdom and the Plantations,

THE Purging Antivenereal ELECTUARY (whereby all Degrees and Symptoms of the Venereal Diſeaſe, from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt confirmed Pox, are happily cured and eradicated) is ſold only by the Proprietor, R. ROCK, L. M. at his Chymiſt's Shop, the Corner of Bell-Savage Inn Gateway, Ludgate-hill, London, at Six Shillings the Pot.

A Book of plain Inſtructions for each Perſon to know the State he is in, with the Symptoms attending the different Degrees of Infection, and plain Directions how to treat them, whereby he may in general be his own Phyſician, is given with each Pot of Electuary.

This Medicine is not unpleaſant to take, is of a ſafe and gentle Nature, not operating violently, yet roots out the Diſeaſe; it requires not ſo ſtrict a Regimen of Diet, nor expoſes the Body to injury from the Weather.

No Perſon need be apprehenſive of a Diſcovery of his Diſorder from this Medicine, as it may be taken, and the Patient follow Buſineſs as uſual.

Thoſe who ſuſpect they have received ſome Taint from a Converſe with an impure Perſon, by taking a Doſe or two of this Electuary may have their Minds ſet at Eaſe, either by its ſhewing them, from no Symptoms appearing, that they have eſcaped, and are ſafe; or, in caſe of Infection, by bringing on a gentle Diſcharge of the Virus, which otherwiſe would have lain lurking in them, and ſpreading its Malignity.

Such as have received imperfect Cures, may, by a few Doſes of this Electuary, have all Infection carried off, and their Cure happily compleated.

Nor is this Medicine leſs effectual in the Cure of ſome Species of the Rheumatiſm; and may be had at my Shop, on asking for a Six Shilling Pot of Electuary for the Rheumatiſm.

Perſons likewiſe of a Scrophulous, Scurbutic, or groſs Habit of Body, cannot have a better cleanſing, purifying, and ſweetening Purge; which, regularly and properly taken, will do Wonders towards their Cure.

The moſt wonderful cleanſing and ſtrengthning Drops for all Sorts of Gleets, and Seminal Weakneſſes and Imbecilities of the Generative Parts and Faculties, preventing Miſcarriages in Women; and to cleanſe and ſtrengthen the Reins, Kidnies and Bladder, cure weak Backs, Strangeuries, Gravel, and Stoppage of the Urine, and for which it has gained ſuch Repute, that near 30000 Bottles have been ſold ſince April 1734, that they were firſt publiſh'd.

THESE incomparable Drops, which for the aboveſaid Diſorders are not to be equall'd in the whole Art of Medicines were preſcribed by the late Dr. Ratcliffe, for a certain noble Lord, who long Time had been vex'd with an old obſtinate Gleet and Weakneſs, of which he was cured by them in a few Days, beyond all Expectation, after he had been harraſs'd with Electuaries, Boluſſes, Pills, Potions, Injections, and a hundred other Medicines, for many Months together in vain.

The Apothecary who prepared them for him acording to the Doctor's Preſcription (which he has ſtill upon his File) has made Uſe of them ever ſince to Numbers of People in the very worſt of Gleets, ſeminal and genital Imbecilities and Infertilities, Pains in the Back and Reins, Diſorders of the Urine and Gravel, &c. with the utmoſt Succeſs and Safety; as alſo in all Weakneſſes from Strains, as well as Venereal Relicts, exceſſive Coition, Self Pollution, ſeminal Emiſſions in Sleep, Falls, Blows, Wrenches, and the like, in both Sexes.

And as they have never once failed him, even in Caſes thought to be incurable, he now, for general Good, has made them publick: And that the meaner Sort of People might partake of the Benefit of ſo divine a Remedy as well as the Rich, he has put them up in Bottles of but 3s 6d each, tho' for the Excellency of their Effects they are worth their Weight in Gold, more eſpecially as one Bottle of them generally Cures, even in the moſt draining Gleets, and grievous Relaxations and Weakneſſes of the Seminals and Genitals, as alſo of the Back and Reins, that are.

Nor can there be prepar'd, by any Art or Skill, a more cleanſing and healing, or a more ſtrengthening and invigorating Medicine, or one that can more effectually cure Impotency, or promote Fertility, than this, as every one that but once tries it will ſay, by their ſoon finding the Difference between this and other Remedies; for it will do more in one Day towards reſtoring in their Weakneſſes than any others can in ten, and is of ſo corroborating a Nature that it may be entirely rely'd upon for curing perfectly and firmly, without Fear of Relapſe, even in the tenderest Conſtitutions, which can hardly be ſaid of any other Medicines; and it is withal ſo elegantly pleaſant to the Palate, and ſo agreeable to the Stomach that the niceſt Perſon is delighted with it.

Mr. Weſt, Goldſmith, who us'd to ſell theſe Drops being dead, they are now Sold only by his Son in Law, Mr. Johnſon, a Baker, at the Seven Stars, in Vere-ſtreet, near Clare-Market, ſealed up, with Directions, for any Meſſenger upon asking only for a Bottle of Drops and paying 3s 6d.

The only short and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY and all Scorbutic Humours, tho' arrived to the highest or most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without a sensible Evacuation, or the least Purging, which, by an unaccountable Mistake, is Generally advised, altho' always found rather to encrease and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH, without the least Trouble, Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, dost once strike at the true Cause of the Scurvy, and entirely destroy it, and all Scorbutick Humours and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again; nor can many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in Three Days Time are convinced; for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids cleanse them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blotches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions or Breakings out, Weakness of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies conceal'd under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for Strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages, (whence proceed Head-Aches, Vapours, and other Indispositions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, insomuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy, in all its Shapes and Appearance they assuredly and directly cure the Green-Sickness in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds, in Young or Old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illnesses.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and cleanse the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Patient pleasantly lightsome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthful State of Body.

But the great Reputation these so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS have so universally gain'd among Persons of Eminence, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humours, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, some under the same, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be sure to have the Right, which, by the Author's special Appointment, are to be had, only at the Gentlewoman's at the two blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions.

For the direct Cure of IMBECILLITY OF IMPOTENCY in MEN, whether occasioned, by Pollutio sui, Seminal Weaknesses of any kind, or any other Defect of the Generative Faculties.

And also

Of BARRENNESS in WOMEN, tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from draining Weaknesses, Coldness of Constitution, or any other Cause whatever.

The Famous and Ineſtimable

PROLIFICK ELIXIR,

The highest, richest, and most powerful Cordial in Nature it recommended,

BEING the only true and Infallible Cure for Impotency in Men and Barrenness in Women, in the Universe, and which it hath once accomplished without the least Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd, as Thousands have Experienced, and that by promoting the chearful Carriere of the Blood and Juices, raising all the Fluids from their languid depressed State, to one more florid and sparkling; opening all Obstructions, fortifying the Nerves, encreasing the Animal Spirits, restoring a Juvenile Bloom, and evidently replenishing the crispy Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moisture, and thereby invigorating it to such a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by those who have experienced how exceedingly and suddenly it renovates, recruits and powerfully strengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It inforces a bright lively Disposition, banishes Melancholy, and inspires Mirth and Gladness of Heart beyond Expression.

Abundance of Ladies, who for several Years were deem'd incurably Barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and became Fruitful, and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who by fast living, Strains, or Self Abuses, had render'd themselves incapable of Procreation, have soon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, insomuch, that very many illustrious Families, who, for want of Children, were almost inconsolable, are now blest with happy Issue, and are (under Providence) indebted to this Great Medicine for their Heirs.

It rectifies all Disorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion, and in all Weakness of Body, or Decay of Constitution of any Kind, is a most infallible Restorative, and even seems to keep back the Effects of Old Age itself.

It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleasant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at the Gentlewoman's at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, London, at 5s. a Bottle, sealed up with printed Directions, and Advice at large.

The So much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHICH in a few Days infallibly cure Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Vapours in Women, so as never to return again, be they ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual, and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as remedying the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, ill Fumes, sour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneasiness in the Bowels; which Crudities offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troublesome Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, flushing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirit and Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering, Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other almost innumerable and grievous Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms in their sharpest Paroxysms, these so much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the most valuable Specifick in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle and, of course, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours, are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as the many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for three Days only, will be sensible they are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange, in Cornhill, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with printed Directions and Advice at large.

GLEETS and SEMINAL WEAKNESSES,

SO destructive to the Constitution, and ruinous not only to the unhappy Individual labouring under them, by draining away the Radical Moisture or very Essence of Life, and inducing Consumptions, Nervous Disorders, &c. but to Posterity also, inasmuch as those afflicted with such Gleetings, if not wholy disabled, as very many are, from propagating their Species, are yet render'd incapable of begetting any other than puny, miserable, and short-liv'd Issue.

These wasting Gleetings, occasion'd by Self-pollution, excessive Venery, severe Purging for Venereal Injuries, or by violent Strains, &c. and which have been deem'd by almost all Physicians and Surgeons to be so very difficult to overcome, are now so certainly known to be directly, and in a manner at once perfectly cur'd by the Grand Restrictive Balsamick Electuary, that no one, how bad soever, need despair of being entirely set to Rights by it in a few Days.

It is from this its most extraordinary Efficacy, that so many Practitioners in Town and Country now send for it for their Patients, as finding it to be the only sure and infallible Remedy that can be safely rely'd upon in those Cases. The Price of this Grand Medicine is 6s. a Pot, seal'd up, with a Book of Instructions, highly necessary to be read by all Persons whoever were afflicted with any Disorder of the Seminal Vessels or neighbouring Parts.

Note, This fam'd Balsamic Electuary is now, by the Author's Appointment, to be had only at Mr. Eglinton's (Mr. Radford being deceased) at the Golden Pair of Spectacles against the East-End of the New Church in the Strand, London. Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balsamic Electuary. No Letters answer'd unless Post-paid.

To Persons of either Sex,
Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other Nervous Decays.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES, PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS so frequent as of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to those pertinacious Distempers: This occasioned a Physician, who employed his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other Nervous Complaints now reigning, which, after he had experienced on vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprizing Success even so as infallibly to cure by it the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Disorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that so those labouring under these miserable Ailments might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almost incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients soon finds all Numbness, Deadness, and shaking, or Resolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vanish and return no more, and this, though these Diseases have been of many Years standing, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, hard drinking, or any other Cause; for it performs all that can be wished for in Nervous Cases, creates an Appetite, expells Wind, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, attenuates the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Vessels, revives and increases the Spirits, warms, comforts, strengthens, and replenishes the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs restored to their pristine Steadiness and Strength, and the Palsy and all Paralitick Disorders and Nervous Decays suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themselves, and all about them.

This sovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be sold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure, even by the very best Method and Medicines in usual Practice, than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weakness, whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutio sui, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption, which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetes, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by the taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary, here published for a general Good, after having for many Years in private Practice been experienced never once to fail of perfectly curing the most stubborn Gleets, known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble, as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels and Urinary Passages, which it almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is, wonderfully Restorative in all Weakness and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels, to an immense Degree, insomuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weakness of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surprized at it.

It is from this its most extraordinary Efficacy that so many Practitioners in Town and Country, send for it for their Patients, as finding it to be the only sure and infallible Remedy that can be safely rely'd upon, in those Cases.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and is ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will be compleat Master of his own Case, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with (whether Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the foul Disease is entirely extirpated or not.

Note, This fam'd Balsamic Electuary is now, by the Author's Appointment, to be had only at Mr. Eglinton's, (Mr. Radford being deceased) at the Golden Pair of Spectacles, against the East-End of the New Church in the Strand, London. Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balsamic Electuary. No Letters answer'd, unless Post-paid.

Dr. R. NELSON, being well known to have made the Cure of Seminal and Genital Imbecilities his chief Study and Practice for above thirty Years, does recommend his most Noble Cleansing and Strengthning ELIXIR, which thousands of People have experienced, to be the only BALSAMICK HEALING RESTORING Medicine in the World,

For Gleets and Weaknesses,

THE Bane of Virility in the one Sex, and Destroyer of Fertility in the other, whether from ill cur'd Venereal Infections (to which nothing is more common) or from inordinate Coition, Self-Pollution (that cursed School Wickedness, which spoils all Youth, by nipping their Manhood in the Bud) or from involuntary Emissions a Nights in the Sleep, or in the Day Time upon Stool with the Urine, or from Falls, Blows, Strains, Wrenches, or the like, which drain, and dry up, the Seminals, and wither, as it were, the Generative Faculties, causing Impotency in Men, the Fluor Albus, and Barrenness in Women, (or but a weakly, sickly Offspring if any) and in the long Run (by impoverishing the Blood and Spirits) Melancholy, Vapours, Decays of Nature, and Consumptions.

No Medicine can be more pleasant to take, nor any Thing upon Earth more effectual for the Purpose; for let the Imbecility be ever so great, or of ever so long standing, and be either in the Prostatick Spermatick Vessels, or Back, with Pain, or without, it certainly Cures by reviving and enriching the Blood and Spirits, comforting, refreshing, and replenishing the Reins and Seminals, and strengthening and restoring the Genital Parts in both Sexes, how much soever weakned, rendred cold, or deadned, and bringing them to their natural Force, Warmth, and Vigour, by thickening and fortifying the Seed which before was thin, watrish, or yellowish, and consequently insufficient, either for Procreation or the Act of it.

All Disorders of the Urine, as Difficulty in the making or retaining it, or its dribling away, hot or smarting, or foul, slimy, thready, greasy or stinking, whether from Gravel, Stone, Strangury, or Venereal Cause are likewise speedily cured by it, and the Water made to be held as strongly, and yet brought away as freely, easily, stream'd, and clear as ever.

Price 5s. a Bottle. Prepared by the above-said Author, and (the only) sealed up with Directions how to take it) at Mr. Corbett's Bookseller, at Addison's Head, opposite St. Dunstan's Church Fleet-street, and by Henry Cook, under the Royal-Exchange, Also for a 5s. Bottle of Elixir.
